PUPPETS, HOBBITS TO INVADE GSU . . . On Friday, February 20, beginning at 8:00 p.m., the Hutsah Puppet Theatre will present a three-act performance of J. R. R. Tolkien's classic story, "The Hobbit," in the Music Recital Hall. A cast of 30 half-size "people" made from foam and rubber will be manipulated by six puppeteers, including Rusty Steiger, creator of this production, on a 20-ft. wide stage with three different playing areas. The production's sound track includes several songs which Steiger himself composed, working with Tolkien's words. Admission is $2.00 for the general public and $1.00 for GSU faculty and staff, members of the GSU Alumni Association and senior citizens. GSU students are admitted free.

GSU JOINS ACU-I . . . GSU has become a member of one of the oldest intercollegiate educational associations. The Association of College Unions--International (ACU-I), founded in 1914, provides opportunities for college unions and student centers to join in studying and improving their organizations, services, programs, facilities, and personnel, and to assist in the development of new college unions. GSU joins over 900 other member colleges and universities throughout the world.

GRAD STUDENT SPONSORS NEW GSU PROGRAM . . . JoAnna LaBelle, graduate student in CAS, is sponsoring a new program for single and divorced women with children in cooperation with the Women's Resource Center. "The Missing Peace," is designed to assist women in coping with having the unique classification of 'single parent' or 'separated or divorced woman.' Problems with childcare, money, loneliness, housing and ex-spouses are also among LaBelle's focuses through her program. Additional information can be obtained by contacting the Women's Resource Center at x2435.

CIVIL SERVICE SENATE NEEDS VOLUNTEERS . . . Various Civil Service Senate committees and the Civil Service councils need volunteers for committee work. Anyone interested should contact Angie Thomas at x2279.

FACULTY EXCHANGE PROJECT . . . Joyce S. Kennedy, Occupational Education Project Coordinator, has announced the establishment of a Faculty Exchange Project for GSU faculty who wish to participate in field visitations to businesses and/or professional institutions related to their major fields. Through cooperative arrangements with selected occupational-related agencies, new techniques and innovations in the field may be observed first hand by GSU faculty for utilization in classroom instruction. Additionally, limited time for in-service and instructional activities presented by professionals in the field will be made available to participating GSU personnel. For further information and application contact the Occupational Education Project Office at x2589 or x2527. Applications should be submitted by March 6, 1981.
